

Forensic Data Consultant/Forensic Data Examiner

Knowledge Preferred:

Considerable knowledge of security, forensics and analysis, IT strategy and operations, design and implementation, and business applications.

Skills Preferred:

Working experience delivering forensic technology, eDiscovery services, and building relationships with clients. Working experience with any of the following products / tools: EnCase, FTK, Paraben, litigation-support software, Microsoft SQL Server, Visual Basic, Microsoft .NET framework, Microsoft Access, SQL, Microsoft Exchange, Lotus Notes/Domino, or system administration experience in Microsoft, AS400, Linux/Unix, or Macintosh.

Demonstrated experience identifying and addressing client needs: actively participating in client discussions and meetings; communicating a broad range of Firm services; managing engagements including preparing concise, accurate documents and balancing project economics management with the occurrence of unanticipated issues.

Demonstrated experience as a team leader: creating a positive environment by monitoring workloads of the team while meeting client expectations and respecting the work-life quality of team members; providing candid, meaningful feedback in a timely manner; and keeping leadership informed of progress and issues.

Minimum Years of Experience Necessary:

3

Minimum Degree(s) and Certification(s) Required:

Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts degree required. Preferred concentration: Computer Science, Information Technology, or a Masters in Information Systems preferred.

EnCase Certified Examiner (EnCE), Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), and/or Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) certifications preferred.

Travel requirements: 50% (mostly in California)